

TRIBUTE TO SOUTHERN UTE
CHAIRMAN LEONARD C. BURCH

HON. SCOTT MCINNIS

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 4, 2003

Mr. MCINNIS. Mr. Speaker, it is with a solemn heart that I rise before this body of Congress to pay tribute to the life and passing of a truly visionary leader. As Chairman of the Southern Ute Tribe in Ignacio, Colorado, Leonard Burch worked tirelessly to elevate his tribe to a place of national prominence and improve the welfare of its members. I have great pride as I rise to highlight Chairman Burch's accomplishments and years of service to the State of Colorado.

The Southern Ute Tribe found a leader with vision for the long-term when they elected Leonard to serve as Chairman in 1967. Despite a soft-spoken demeanor, Chairman Burch exuded a strong presence, and elected officials throughout my state held him in high regard. Chairman Burch built on these partnerships to help pass the statute creating the Colorado Commission of Indian Affairs in 1976. Chairman Burch's high standard of public service and strong leadership style will serve as an example for generations of future leaders.

Chairman Burch was widely renowned for his caring personality and dedication to the long-term development of the Southern Ute Tribe. His policies as tribal Chairman focused on energy development, the health of his fellow tribe members, and the education of tribal youth. While he cared for the entire tribe's well being, Chairman Burch's focus never strayed from his family. He always spoke proudly of his seven daughters.

Mr. Speaker, I am proud to stand before this body of Congress to pay tribute to Leonard Burch for his devotion to his family, dedication to his community, and the leadership he offered to the Southern Ute Tribe. His legacy is evident in the enhanced self-determination, opportunity, and sovereignty that his fellow tribe members enjoy today. While he will be dearly missed, we can all take solace in the knowledge that Chairman Burch's spirit lives on through those whom he has touched.

ELLIS ISLAND MEDALS OF HONOR
AWARDS CEREMONY—NECO
CHAIRMAN WILLIAM DENIS
FUGAZY LEADS DRAMATIC CEREMONY

HON. DAN BURTON

OF INDIANA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 4, 2003

Mr. BURTON of Indiana. Mr. Speaker, I submit the following:

ELLIS ISLAND, NY, May 17.—Standing on the hallowed grounds of Ellis Island—the portal through which 17 million immigrants entered the United States—a cast of ethnic Americans who have made significant contributions to the life of this nation were presented with the coveted Ellis Island Medal of Honor at an emotionally uplifting ceremony. This year's event was dedicated to our armed forces.

This year's ceremony date coincides with National Armed Forces Day. As such, we would like to pay special tribute to the men and women serving in the U.S. armed forces both here and abroad. Several of our Medalists also serve in the armed forces; many more are honored veterans.

NECO's annual medal ceremony and reception on Ellis Island in New York Harbor is the Nation's largest celebration of ethnic pride. Representing a rainbow of ethnic origins, this year's recipients received their awards in the shadow of the historic Great Hall, where the first footsteps were taken by the millions of immigrants who entered the U.S. in the latter part of the nineteenth century. "Today we honor great ethnic Americans who, through their achievements and contributions, and in the spirit of their ethnic origins, have enriched this country and have become role models for future generations," said NECO Chairman William Denis Fugazy. "In addition, we honor the immigrant experience—those who passed through this Great Hall decades ago, and the new immigrants who arrive on American soil seeking opportunity."

Established in 1986 by NECO, the Ellis Island Medals of Honor pay tribute to the ancestry groups that comprise America's unique culture mosaic. To date, approximately 2000 American citizens have received medals.

NECO is the largest organization of its kind in the U.S. serving as an umbrella group for over 250 ethnic organizations and whose mandate is to preserve ethnic diversity, promote ethnic and religious equality, tolerance and harmony, and to combat injustice, hatred and bigotry. NECO has a new goal in its humanitarian mission: saving the lives of children with life-threatening medical conditions. NECO has founded The Forum's Children Foundation, which brings children from developing nations in need of life-saving surgery to the United States for treatment.

Ellis Island Medals of Honor recipients are selected each year through a national nomination process. Screening committees from NECO's member organizations select the final nominees, who are then considered by the Board of Directors.

Past Ellis Island Medals of Honor recipients have included several U.S. Presidents, entertainers, athletes, entrepreneurs, religious leaders and business executives, such as William Clinton, Ronald Reagan, Jimmy Carter, Gerald Ford, George Bush, Richard Nixon, George Pataki, Mario Cuomo, Bob Hope, Frank Sinatra, Michael Douglas, Gloria Estefan, Coretta Scott King, Rosa Parks, Elie Wiesel, Muhammad Ali, Mickey Mantle, General Norman Schwarzkopf, Barbara Walters, Terry Anderson, Dr. Michael DeBakey, Senator John McCain, Rudy Giuliani and Attorney General Janet Reno.

HONORING MAX MAROLT

HON. SCOTT McINNIS

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 4, 2003

Mr. McINNIS. Mr. Speaker, it is with a solemn heart that I rise before this body of Congress today to recognize the life and passing of a skiing icon. Max Marolt was a world-class skier and prominent political figure in his hometown of Aspen, Colorado. I am honored to rise today to highlight Max's accomplishments and his service to the Aspen community.

Max was born in Aspen in 1936, one of three sons that would soon become prominent figures in the skiing community. Max excelled as a member of the Aspen junior racing team, leading it to a third place finish at the National Junior Meet in 1951. After joining the Denver University Ski Team, he earned a place on the U.S. Ski Team in 1954. Several years later, Max's skills and determination led to an invitation to the 1960 Olympic Winter Games. Max's participation in the Olympic games inspired local skiers throughout the area to pursue their grandest dreams, including his brother Bill, who competed in the Olympics in 1964.

Although Max's intrepid spirit led him on many adventures around the world, he continued to call Aspen his home. Max worked as a sales representative for several ski equipment manufacturers while raising his four children and cultivating their respective skiing careers. His son noted that Max dedicated the last 30 years of his life to his family and community. Max's service included a stint on the Aspen City Council in 1995 and a campaign for mayor in 1997.

Mr. Speaker, I am proud to stand before this body of Congress today to pay tribute to Max Marolt for his devotion to his family, dedication to his community, and numerous athletic achievements. Citizens like Max provide the spirit and strength of character that made this nation great. While he will be dearly missed, we can all take solace in the knowledge that Max's spirit lives on through those whom he has touched.

CONGRATULATIONS TO TREE OF LIFE MISSIONARY BAPTIST CHURCH IN GARY, IN

HON. PETER J. VISCLOSKY

OF INDIANA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 4, 2003

Mr. VISCLOSKY. It is with great honor and enthusiasm that I congratulate the Tree of Life Missionary Baptist Church in Gary, Indiana, as they celebrate their 24th anniversary. During the month of September, Tree of Life Missionary Baptist Church will be celebrating their anniversary on three different occasions. The celebration will kick off on September 6 with a balloon release and a barbeque, followed by a banquet on September 12, and a culmination of the anniversary celebration on September 21.

The vision of Tree of Life Missionary Baptist Church began on July 23, 1979 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Ervin, along with Reverend Cato Brooks and many others. In August of 1979, the church was organized as the Tree of Life Mission and worship began with Reverend James Barnett, Jr., and Greater Harvest Missionary Baptist Church. Then in September of 1979, the Tree of Life Mission became the Tree of Life Missionary Baptist Church and incorporated a council of various religious ministers from other local churches. When the doors opened to the new church, 28 parishioners came together in worship service, and shortly after Rev. Brooks was named Pastor.

Tree of Life quickly grew in numbers and began to reach out to the community by constructing an alcohol and drug addiction program through the Alcohol Center at St. Mary's Mercy Hospital. The church and Rev. Brooks were strong initiators for the New Beginning AA program in the community as well as the West 11th Avenue AA program. In June of 1984, Rev. Brooks appointed Rev. Hunter Griffin, III as the church's Jail and Outreach Minister, and he reached out to over 650 inmates through prayer services at the Lake County Jail in Crown Point, Indiana.

On February 5, 1991, the Tree of Life Missionary Baptist Church received high commendation from the City of Gary for all of its efforts to serve, educate, and support the local community. In July of 1991, the Southern Baptist State Convention Home Mission Board awarded the Tree of Life with a certificate of outstanding performance in Christian Service.
